Vienna – the city where the concert halls are golden and the music simply sparkles!

It wouldn't be New Year without the music of Vienna's most famous son Johann Strauss and his friends.

Let us whirl you away to a world full of elegant waltzes, playful polkas and good old-fashioned romance. Filled with tunes you'll know and love, get your 2024 off to a glittering start with this concert featuring the wonderful musicians of the Royal Scottish National Orchestra.

JERSEY BEATS
OH WHAT A NITE!

It's the night out not to be missed – wowing crowds in Blackpool since 2014, and now touring the country – Oh What A Nite! is a different style of tribute show to any other you have seen or heard of before.

This tribute to Frankie Valli tells the story of how the band reached the dizzying heights of television appearances, fame and fortune – plus host Leye D Johns brings a light-hearted flavour to proceedings, ensuring audiences leave with a big smile on their face.

The BRANDON McPHEE Show

Friday 16th February • 2.30pm • £22.00

MATINÉE

It is just over 15 years since Brandon at the age of 10, ventured his first notes on the button Accordion at his grandad Donald's knee. A good listener and keen pupil, he was soon playing the "Dark Island". To say he took to the instrument is an understatement, by the age of 17, Brandon was the All Scotland Senior Accordion Champion. His love of singing and country music grew apace and he has worked with some of the finest Irish artists, including Daniel O'Donnell, Philomena Begley and Foster & Allen. A single Walking on The Waves, making No.1 in the country Music Charts based on airplay. Brandon has recorded with Foster and Allen since then a single Spanish Lady, Brandon Recorded with Tony Allen and in the spring another single this time with Daniel O'Donnell is due for release.

17 CD's and 8 DVD's later, an afternoon with Brandon McPhee and his band featuring Manson Grant, is a wonderful mix of classic Country, Folk, Irish and Scottish music.

A musical variety show not to be missed.

CRAIG HILL

'This gets harder every year!'

Friday 23rd February

with

Special Guest

Gareth Waugh

Cheeky and irreverent, Scotland's much-loved Kilty Pleasure unleashes his fantastic new show (and another corker of a show title) for a fun evening of uproarious stand-up! Renowned world-wide for his high-octane live comedy, Craig's razor-sharp wit and unsurpassed audience rapport have seen him perform all over Europe, Australia (including the Sydney Opera House) all over Scotland as well as south of the border and even a season of solo shows in an historic off-Broadway theatre in New York.

Celebrating 25 years of riotous comedy with the funnest audiences anyone could wish for, Craig's shows are firmly established as one of the best nights out around (the last tour sold out fast) and he's hugely popular for a very good reason - get ready for a night of belly-ache laughs at the The Buccleuch. We definitely recommend that you book early!

'Flat-out hilarious... I've not heard a room laugh so long and hard... The audience was in absolute paroxysms of laughter... Genuinely funny' ★★★★★ (Mirror)

Rodgers & Hammerstein's

Oklahoma!

Tuesday 19th - Friday 22nd March at 7.30pm

Saturday 23rd March at 2.30pm

£15 concs £12

Langholm's favourite am-drammers kick-off their second century with this rousing Rodgers and Hammerstein favourite...be sure not to miss it!

Oklahoma! tells the story of Curly, a charismatic cowboy, and Laurey, a spirited farm girl. Their blossoming love is tested by a lively rivalry between cowboys and farmers, as tensions rise and passions ignite. Set against the backdrop of a close-knit community, the musical explores themes of love, loyalty, and the pursuit of dreams.

Langholm Rotary Club presents Dalston Male Voice Choir

Saturday 13th April • 7.30pm • £10

Dalston Male Voice Choir was founded in February 1985 by Hilary Hodgson with the aims of advancing male voice singing through public concerts. Thus, the choir would bring pleasure to the audiences but would also support local charities, which it does to this day.

The choir's repertoire is very varied and contrasts seasonal hymns and carols with songs from twentieth century musicals, sing traditional folk and gospel songs and of course no male voice choir would be complete without a wide selection of well-known Welsh songs. This is our first visit to the Buccleuch centre.

the foyer café ▪ bar ▪ restaurant

Castlevue Catering, our in-house caterer, offers high quality Pre-Theatre Dinner in our restaurant before many of our shows; check with box office staff for availability and booking details.

Our comfortable and fully licensed Coffee Shop offers freshly prepared coffee, scones, cakes and lunches in a relaxed and friendly environment.

PAUL POTTS in Concert

Friday 19th April • 7.30pm • £25

Meet & Greet £45

Paul Potts, the Welsh-residing tenor, is living his dream. Bullied and taunted at school, singing in the local church choir proved to be a sanctuary for Paul. Listening to La Boheme at aged 16, Paul fell in love with opera, a romance that was to set him on a turbulent journey that would eventually lead him to win the first series of Britain's Got Talent in 2007.

Truly a life-changing event, Paul released his multi-Platinum debut album 'One Chance' that year, topped the charts in 13 countries, appeared on Oprah (twice), brought Times Square to a standstill, announced a global arena tour and became a household name in cities from Seoul to New York and Sydney to Hamburg.

Join us at The Buccleuch for what promises to be a very special concert indeed.
